Avarez Mccall

McCall has been at the WmO for 13 years, and he is the concierge supervisor.

Mccall is definitely a "fan"atic cheering on UGA football (Go Dawgs), the Patriots, (hey Falcons 28-3), and a team that I wasn't aware of, a supporter of the Duke men's basketball. He is also a huge fan of LaBron James.

Mccall graduated from a very small college in Wrens Georgia (a couple of miles outside of Augusta) where he earned two associate degrees. He is a Navy Veteran (Navy took care of Army 31-13) - all that aside thank you for your service to our country.

On a personal note, Mccall and his wife have been married 16 year and they have a 15 year old son. Mccall just celebrated his 49th birthday on December 11th. Happy Belated Birthday!

Next year is the big 50 so please put this in your calendars now so we can have a big celebration next year.

COMING PROJECTS

- Baseboards and Tiles: Proposal approved. Waiting on vendor to schedule the repairs.
- Roof Inspection: Proposal under review.
- Capital Reserve Study: Scheduled for December and will be shared with owners upon completion.
- Plumbing Inspection: Scheduled for January 2025 and there will be an insurance audit at the same time.
- Vendor Meetings: Window replacement and stone replacement (discuss solutions for the inability to get matching stone). Both meetings TBD in December.

Recipe to Share

Firecrackers

Ingredients:

1 box soda crackers
1 pkg dry ranch dressing
1 tablespoon Cayenne pepper
1 tablespoon
Red Pepper Crushed
1 ¼ cup corn oil
(cannot use olive oil;
it is too heavy)

Instructions:

Place oil and dry ingredients in a one-gallon bag. Mix well; add all sleeves of crackers into bag. Seal, rotate bag often, then let them set overnight or all day. You can adjust amount of spices. Enjoy.
